DEATH OF ISAAC LOUGHEED

One of the real pioneers of The Pass, in the person of Isaac Lougheed, passed to his eternal reward on Friday evening last, following an illness of several years.

Mr. Lougheed came to the district around twenty-six years ago, and spent most of that time as a prospector. He was sixty-seven years of age and a native of Collingwood, Ontario.

During the early stages of the Great War, he enlisted for active service with the 192nd Battalion, then being formed in The Pass. While at the front he was wounded, and his death is believed traceable to such wounds. As far as is known, one relative survives, a sister residing in Detroit.

Funeral took place from the Crow's Nest Undertaking Parlors on Sunday afternoon and was largely attended. The funeral arrangements were made by the local branch of the British Empire Service League. The remains were laid to rest in the Blairmore Union cemetery.

Service at the graveside was conducted by the Rev. J. W. Smith, following which the "Last Post" was sounded.

DEATH OF MRS. AMELIA MIRO

Death claimed another old-time resident on Friday of last week, in the person of Mrs. Amelia Miro, mother of Mrs. R. Biell, at the age of sixty-one years.

Mrs. Miro was a native of Barre, Vermont, and had resided here for a number of years.

The remains were shipped back to her home town by Saturday night's train, following Libera at St. Anne's church in the afternoon.

DEATH OF GEORGE RITCHIE

The death occurred at Coleman on Tuesday evening of George Alexander Ritchie, for many years resident ranger at Castle River, at the age of sixty-four.

Mr. Ritchie had been ill for a considerable time.

Funeral takes place at Coleman tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

FIFTH AVENUE TO BE GRADED

At the regular meeting of the town council on Tuesday night, it was decided to grade Fifth Avenue, particularly that portion north of Victoria Street to the river bridge. In this connection, the West Canadian Collieries has offered to co-operate to the extent of furnishing the filling material necessary.

Fifth Avenue is one of our main thoroughfares, serving people on the north side, and the efforts of the council will be appreciated.

MUNICIPALITIES HOLD SUCCESSFUL CONVENTION

Mayor A. D. Shrimpton, of Strathmore, was elected president for the ensuing year of the Union of Alberta Municipalities at the very successful convention of this body held during the past week in Calgary. Other officials named were Fred J. White, M. L. A., of Calgary, first vice-president, and Mayor W. J. Burns, of Coleman, second vice-president, while J. D. Saunders, of Camrose, was reappointed secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. George Wilson, accompanied by her son, Sidney White, of Coleman, left by Tuesday night's train for Fort William, where Mr. Wilson has lately assumed an important position. Mr. Wilson was formerly auditor for Burns & Co., Limited, on this route, and is still with that company at Fort William.

DOMINION DAY CELEBRATION IS LARGELY ATTENDED

The weather man looked with favor upon Blairmore on Monday, July 1st, and thousands of visitors availed of the opportunity of taking in the big field sports programme at Blairmore.

The events of the day started at 10 a.m., with enlivening music from the West Canadian Collieries' silver band, which was present for the entire day.

The baseball tournament was won by Hillcrest over Blairmore, after the latter had decisively trimmed Coleman.

The football contest between Bellevue and Hillcrest teams was won by the latter by a score of 3 to 2.

The field events were well contested, particularly the five-mile marathon for the Pinkney cup, in which J. Fournier, of Hillcrest, won in the record time of 27 minutes and 20 seconds. James McVey came in second, and Johnnie Kerr, of Passburg, third.

Plans To Canoe Down the Fraser

Young German Journalist To Commence Adventurous Canoe Trip

In the track of the great explorers of the first white men to lay eyes on the Pacific coast a young German journalist is about to start an adventurous canoe journey down the Fraser and the Thompson Rivers to Vancouver. Arriving in Jasper from Edmonton where he took a preliminary canter on the Saskatchewan River, Carl Schwerer, of Munich, will leave for Mount Robson. He will take to the water at Blue River, returning to Jasper by train. Schwerer plans to explore the Athabasca and Maligne Lake. The young adventurer, who has written a number of books on outdoor subjects, is also a lecturer of prominence in Germany both by radio and from the platform and has written and produced movie scenarios of river and lake travel. By movie and still photograph and by the written and the spoken word, he will carry Canada back to Europe. His canoe is a folding one weighing only 35 pounds and easily carried on a man's back and is modelled after the Eskimo kayaks.

Mexican Jumping Bean

The Mexican jumping bean does so because of a little worm inside which coils itself and lets itself go like a catapult, carrying its host along with it. The worm lives in the bean all the time, and if a hole is made in the shell, it falls it up again.

Canadian Amateur
Golf Championship

Entries Restricted To Players With Handicaps Of Ten and Close August 1

Entries for the Canadian Amateur Golf Championship to be played over the Jasper Park Lodge Course, Jasper, Alberta, August 19 to 24, will close on August 1, according to announcement made by G. E. Harvey, president of the R.C.G.A. Positively no entries will be accepted after that date. Mr. Harvey said, and it will be necessary for those desiring to play to have their entries in the hands of E. L. Anderson, secretary of the R.C.G.A., Hamilton, Ont., before August 1.

Players entering the Canadian championship must have a certified handicap of ten or less. Figuring on this basis, it is believed that not 100 players will take off in the qualifying round of the major event at Jasper in August; the figures being arrived at as follows: Eastern Canada, 20; Manitoba, 15; Saskatchewan, 10; Alberta, 20; British Columbia, 30; and the United States, 15.

A much larger entry list is expected for the Western Canada Amateur Championship which will be played over the Jasper course at the same time. This event is open to players with a registered handicap of 18 or less. Entries for this event should be in the hands of Innes Mackenzie, Winnipeg, secretary of the Western Canada Golf Association, not later than August 14, though in special circumstances post entries will be accepted at Jasper.

The appointment to Cabinet rank of Miss Margaret Grace Bondfield is of particular interest to Canadians who remember her visit to Canada in January, 1927.

She was first elected to Parliament by Northampton, which she represented in 1923-24. She has since a thorough apprenticeship for her present Cabinet position, having been parliamentary secretary to the Ministry of Labor in the MacDonald Government in 1924. She was the successful parliamentary candidate in Walsend in 1926.

WHERE WHITE MEN LIVE

This Little Red Cross Outpost at Pouce Coupe, in the Far North, is the pride of the Province of Alberta. Situated 485 miles north-west of Edmonton, it is 89 miles from the end of steel.

Formerly the buffalo and Indian held sway, but today the Pale faces are establishing themselves in splendid settlements, forging ahead with a type of civilization that does honour to the pioneer "Pilgrim Fathers" of their ancestry.

Thanks to the Red Cross vision and extension service, this district is no longer a place where men live, but where "White Men Live," for the beneficent arms of the Greatest Mother embraces six settlements in an area of three hundred miles.

Song of Thanksgiving

The following song, "Gratitude," words by W. E. Dyer and tune suggested by Dr. E. C. Macdonald, is an empire song of thanksgiving for returning health of His Majesty the King.

Almighty God—in gratitude We now approach Thy throne, And in one voice, though many tongues, Thy might, Thy power we own.

The sea and West the North and South, And mansion, cottage, field, Cathedral, church, and humble shrine, Their grateful message yield.

Grant peace in all the Empire, Lord, Grant peace throughout the world; May every people sing Thy praise, With every flag unfurled.

Teachers in schools throughout the west may secure copies of this "Hymn of Gratitude" in its original form by writing to the composer, Mr. W. E. Dyer, 4 Fairview Avenue, Toronto, and enclosing postage to cover the cost of mailing.

Explanations and Comments

Ezekiel's Vision, Call, and Commission. 1:1, by 27:2, the chapter Ezekiel describes the indescribable, the complicated vision which he had of God: the wonderful chariot, the fiery cloud, the four living creatures, in their midst the perpetual flash of lightning and the glow of fire, above them the crystal firmament, on it a sapphire throne, and on the throne Almighty God, Himself.

The prophet fell prone upon his face, till the awful vision was broken up by the sight of his manhood, and so to find readiness to hear the word of the Lord. G. Campbell Moore. The service to which God called the prophet was to proclaim to the rebellious people the divine message, "Thus saith the Lord Jehovah."

The Israelites have been rebellious throughout their history. They are ungrateful and stiff-hearted and they may not listen, but the prophet must not be deterred by their words and looks, even though there are "briers and thorns" and he dwells "among scorpions," symbols of the opposition he may meet.

Ezekiel's Inspiration, 2:8 to 3:3. That Ezekiel was divinely inspired, that the message which he was to proclaim was communicated to him by God, is symbolized by his eating of the scroll of the book (roll) which was inscribed God's message. "The lamentation, mourning, and weeping" in the visionary book, do, in point of fact, faithfully describe the general contents and temper of Ezekiel's message throughout the earlier part of his ministry and the first half of his book, that is, down to the 24th chapter.

This conception of inspiration implies that the message he is to deliver must be his own. It is God's ultimately, but Ezekiel must make it his own, work it into the very life of his being; assimilate it, as we should say. It is the meaning of the strange language of 3:3—until it is himself that he is uttering. When he calls the roll, better as he is content, it is as sweet as honey in his mouth, for it is sweet to do the will of God, to be trusted with tasks for Him.—J. E. Penke.

This finely suggests that the cooperation of man is indispensable to the adequate reception of a message from God. The roll is a gift of God, but the man has to eat it. The message is, we may say, supernaturally communicated, but it has to be appropriated. The assimilated. The man has to make the gift of God his own.—J. E. McPadden.

The Vimy Monument

Credited With Being the Finest Of Any in the Battlefield Area. "The Vimy monument is the finest of any in the battle area," declared Hon. Herbert Marler, Canadian envoy to Japan, upon his return to Canada from a European trip. Mr. Marler, who is sailing for Tokyo from Vancouver on August 29, aboard the "Empress of France," was in England and France on business matters and while over there was received by the Prince of Wales. The Prince said Mr. Marler showed himself to be well informed on the Canadian conditions, and asked a number of questions about the Dominion.

"After spending some little time in England, I went to France, and then saw the battlefields. Among the host of monuments that have been erected those of Canada are the best, and the Vimy monument is the finest of any in the battle area." On it are the sculptured names of 11,000 Canadians who fell at Vimy," he said.

The Sooner the Better

Two spinsters of uncertain age were exchanging confidences. One said: "My dear, which would you prefer in a husband, wealth, position or appearance?"

"Oh, appearance by all means, and I want him to appear pretty soon, too."

Quite So

Traveller: "You have a wonderful crop of peaches this year. What do you do with those you can't use?" Hotel Manager: "The peaches we can't use we can."

Traveller: "We adopt the same principle with our orders. What can't we use we cancel."

The poor we have ever with us. "Yes; and aren't they flivers a nuisance?"

Rid Mexico

Of Drink Evil

President Gil Inaugurates Campaign To Restrict Sale of Intoxicants

President Porfirio Gil's campaign to rid Mexico of the drink evil has gained such momentum that it has become one of the chief topics of discussion throughout the country and one of the principal subjects of legislation.

The president's appeal to state governments to second his endeavors has met with ready response in the form of orders restricting the sale and consequently consumption of alcoholic liquors as well as regulating the number of saloons.

Governor Raymundo Lindquez, of Chiapas, has instructed the state treasurer to establish so heavy a tax on intoxicating drinks that their manufacture will be unprofitable. This measure, in addition to discouraging manufacture of liquor, is calculated to oblige the saloons to charge prices beyond the reach of the average man.

Governor Enriquez also has ordered that the saloons be forced to pay increased taxes, hoping through this means to cause many of them to close. Furthermore, he has prohibited the sale of intoxicants on ranches and farms, many of which employ hundreds of men.

Similar, although less stringent measures have been adopted in other states, and the war department has prohibited sale of liquor to soldiers.

The government of Mexico City has placed a ban on sale of liquor in dance halls and has notified cabaret proprietors that they will no longer be allowed to employ waitresses.

Anti-alcohol leagues have been formed throughout Mexico among mothers, teachers, school children and workers, and lectures on the evils of the drink habit are being given in theatres, the schools, union headquarters and other public assembly places.

Little Helps For This Week

"The Lord will give strength unto His people; the Lord will bless His people with peace."—Psalm xcix. 11.

Lo! fainter now lie spread the shades of night.

And upland shoot the trembling gleams of morn; Suppliant we bend before the Lord of Right.

And pray at early dawn.—That His sweet charity may all our sin forgive, and make our miseries to cease; May grant us health, grant us the Everlasting peace.

Breviary (trans. by Edward Caswell).

There is indeed a peace on earth; but it is not the peace of inaction, of prosperity. It is the peace of him who accepts the condition on which life is given, who girds himself for the conflict, who has a clear, strong faith that conflict is wisely ordained, and who has an earnest in the energy it calls forth of the perfection of his soul and the triumph of a higher world.

—William Ellery Channing.

Worth Trying

When salt hardens in shakers, remove the tops, turn them upside down, fill them with hot paraffine and place upside down on a smooth surface. Before the paraffine becomes too hard open the holes in the shakers top with a toothpick. Salt will keep quite dry in shakers when the covers are treated in this manner.

A woman in Russia has been pronounced dead on five occasions in the course of a few years. An ideal grandmother, we should say, for some office boy in the baseball season.

Petrels are so named because their habit of walking on water recalls the biblical story of Peter.

"My darling, if I had to choose between you and a million pounds, it would break my heart to have to choose the million."—Der. Walter Jakob, Berlin.

EPISODES

As Gray dawn creeps over the New York skyscrapers, Marcus, the famous revue producer, is leaving the fashionable Plaza night club with a party of four. An actress companion suggests that they go to Blackie Joe's club, where the "fun is just starting," and Marcus consents. At Blackie's shabby club the newcomers are seated at a "ring-side table" by Al Stone, Blackie's head singing waiter and comedian, who wonders who they are. Grace, the pretty cigarette girl, catches the name "Marcus," and hopes the celebrated producer will do something to help Al, whom she admires tremendously.

As Al hurried toward the door leading to the bar, Grace speculated as to whether she could cut across and intercept him. But he was moving too fast and there were too many tables in between. She decided to wait until he returned, then she would drop a word as to Marcus' identity. It was necessary for Al to know that, so he could put everything possible into the come songs he would sing in a few moments.

Grace's sensitive young face was a study in devotion. Al Stone had been her best friend, Blackie's place. When she had taken the job of cigarette girl a few months before, the crowds, waiters, bar-tenders and performers frightened her, the rough-and-ready atmosphere of the place made her shudder and she had herself. Then it was that Al had put his hand kindly on her shoulder and looked down into her apprehensive brown eyes.

"Don't be scared, kid. Everybody's all right here." Two minutes later, Al had forgotten his words, but Grace treasured them and knew them by heart. She had promptly fallen in love with him. Al did not know this, no one knew it, not even Grace herself. She merely knew that the dark, gentle eyes of the young singing waiter had a quality she had never seen in the eyes of another man.

Now he was obscured for a moment as a chorus of dancing girls tripped across the floor. The chorus was agile, but that was all you could say. They were neither graceful nor beautiful.

Marcus, the producer, the connoisseur of femininity, the desperado who picked only the loveliest girls for his revues and rehearsed them for months until they were perfect. Marcus made no attempt to hide his disdain at this apology for entertainment. Grace saw him turn to the pretty actress at his table with a bored look that said only too plainly: "So this is what you brought me to see!"

Then Grace heard a voice behind her, a rough masculine voice.

"Hey, cigarette girl, come here. She swung about and carried her heaping tray of cigars and cigarettes to a nearby table. Three men, black-eyed and uncaring of speech, looked up into her face.

Had Diarrhoea Bowels So Active Feared For His Life

Mrs. B. J. Jago, Canobie, N.E., writes: "My little boy, who three years old, had a severe attack of diarrhoea. The bowels were so active, and he vomited so much, I feared for his life. I tried many medicines, but he was always getting worse. A friend told me of and after the second dose I saw him improve. I gave him almost half a bottle and he was completely relieved.

"I have used it on different children and my husband and myself. My husband gives me a bottle and I give it to him. And when he goes away from home to work, he always takes a bottle with him."

"Want some—cig—cigarettes?" said one of them.

Grace lowered her tray for this patron to make a selection and, as she did so, looking over her shoulder, one of his companions had drawn his chair closer to her.

"Say, you're a nice kid," suggested the second man, with a rapid expression on his face. "Do you know where you've been watching you?"

Grace smiled faintly, but ignored him otherwise, while she passed on the cigarettes to the first customer. That was what Blackie and Al had told her to do when the patrons became personal in their remarks—nothing and attend to business.

As she leaned across the table to hand another pack of cigarettes to the third man of the party her skirts rose a trifle. Without looking she knew that one of the customers was looking her up and down. Then suddenly she felt her other hand in his tightening grasp.

She straightened up sharply and tried to draw away. She knew she mustn't make a scene, for, after all, she was only a night club cigarette girl, and the customers must be humored a little.

"At this moment, Al Stone, just about to turn the corner to the door leading to the bar, shot a glance across the room and visualized Grace's predicament in a flash. In a moment he had veered across, while Grace gazed beseechingly into the drunken man's eyes and murmured, "Please let go."

Then Al looked at her side and stepped sharply on the man's foot. A cry of pain came from the customer and he released Grace to seize his aching toe. The girl caught Al's signal and made good her escape, while the three unduly excited customers stared up in bewilderment at Al's broad grin.

"Why did you step on my foot?" "Did I do that? I'm sorry."

Again the broad, but guileless grin. While the three unduly excited customers stared up in bewilderment at Al's broad grin. "But now he felt a hand lightly on his sleeve and looked down into Grace's wistful eyes.

"Thank you, Al," she murmured. The waiter palmed her on the shoulder. "That's all right, Gracie. Those things will happen. If they bother you again let me know."

Al glanced down at the diminutive Grace and his handsome face softened, as it always did when he reassured her. But in the tenderness of her dark eyes he saw only the gratitude of someone he considered merely a sweet child.

To him the marked evidence of acceleration in her breathing and the faint tremor of her warm and lovely little mouth were only her reactions to fright.

Nor did he see her head turn, as he moved away, while her eyes followed him adoringly. Not until he disappeared and the throbb of her heart, swung back to normal did Grace recall that she had a message for him.

But when the singing waiter reappeared with his four beers on a tray he did not head straight across the big room. Instead he paused in the barroom entrance and glanced down the corridor. "Through an open doorway he saw a good-looking blonde girl, a few years older than Grace, seated before a mirror in a tiny dressing room. She was studying her reflection in a self-contained way, as she slowly and rhythmically brushed her lustrous golden hair. This was Molly Winton, the pallid singer at Blackie Joe's.

Al moved slowly toward the door as if drawn by a magnet, forgetting his order for a moment. His eyes lit up at the sight of Molly and with fascinated gaze he watched her white, rounded, raised arms protruding from her pink silk dressing gown. He slowly manipulated the hair brush.

Molly was undoubtedly a pretty girl and one of the favorites at Blackie Joe's. Yet there was a hardness about her eyes and a petulance discernible at the corners of her mouth that had led her to go for the man who would fall in love with her. Al, however, was blind to these defects.

As he neared her dressing room door she saw him, gave him one in-different glance, then turned to the mirror again to rouge her shapely lips. At that moment of studying her reflection Molly, the heart-song specialist, was gazing at the person she loved best!

Old London Church

Sanctuary Made Famous By Chas. Dickens Is In Danger Of Crumbling

The church of St. George-the-Martyr, immortalized as "Little Nell" by Dickens, as "Little Dorrit's Church," is in danger of crumbling. All London knows St. George as "Little Dorrit's."

Opinion cracks many feet long have appeared in the walls and crypt. These are gradually widening until now the whole structure has been placed in danger.

The authorities have threatened to condemn the building unless prompt action is taken to make it safe. The rectory of the church has started a drive for $25,000 for repairs to save it.

"Little Dorrit's Church" was built in 1736, and was given its popular nickname because one of Dickens' characters often slept in the vestry with the church register as his pillow.

Upon the site of St. George-the-Martyr stood another church dating back to 1122 in the time of the Saxons. It is the earliest if not the oldest church in London.

Service For Plane Passengers

May Receive Market Reports and Musical Programs Is Prediction

Aeroplane passengers of the future may expect to listen regularly to market reports, baseball scores, and musical programs, if the prediction of W. P. McCracken, Jr., of Cleveland, assistant secretary of commerce for aeronautics, comes true.

"These programs could be tuned in right now, for that matter," McCracken indicates. "In favorable weather the pilot of a properly equipped plane has no need of his radio apparatus."

McCracken predicts that great developments will be made along the line of radio transmission from ground to plane and from plane to ground.

DO NOT NEGLECT YOUR LITTLE ONES

At no time of life is delay or neglect more serious than at childhood. The little of life ones come quickly and the mother is prompt in administering treatment. A precious little may be snuffed out almost before the mother realizes the baby is ill. The prudent mother always keeps something in the medicine chest as a safeguard against the sudden illness of her little ones. Thousands of mothers have found, through experience, that there is no other medicine to equal Baby's Own Tablets and that is why they always keep a box of the Tablets on hand, why they always feel safe with the Tablets.

Baby's Own Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which by regulating the bowels and stomach banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and promote healthy, natural sleep. Consulting Dr. M. L. T. Lee, Dr. Eugene Ott, writes: "I have been using Baby's Own Tablets ever since they were a month old and have found that they reach the spot and do more good than any other medicine I have ever tried. I always keep the Tablets in the house and would advise all other mothers to do so." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Why Shouldn't It Be?

Abe Lyman, the Hollywood jazz bandman, who is playing at the Kill Rat Club, in London, England, recently journeyed up to Scotland for the week-end. Returning from Glasgow to London, Lyman had as a travelling companion in his compartment a rather close-mouthed, middle-aged, Scotchman. After an interminable number of stops at various stations, he found the Scotch looking more dour and solemn than ever.

"It's a long, wearisome journey," remarked Lyman, by way of making conversation.

The Scotchman looked at him with an angry frown. "You're a good fellow," he said, "but you're a bit of a chatter. It cost fifty-five shillings, nine pence!"

United States Patent Office has granted a patent to the manufacturer of the "Yellow Bird" monoplane. Since United States law will not accept a second patent on an invention which has already been patented, it will have to be made good by something new. The new monoplane, which will be made in the United States, is a two-seater, with a reciprocating engine, and will be the first of its kind in the world.

To Capture Cup Sir Thomas Lipton To Make Another Effort To Win International Honors

"I'm going to do my damndest to bring the cup back," Sir Thomas Lipton said in the first interview he has granted since acceptance of his challenge to another international yacht race in 1930.

On the veranda of his mansion at Southgate, Sir Thomas appeared vigorous and healthy, despite the fact that he will be celebrating his 80th birthday at the time when the yachts are racing off Newport a year from next September.

"Do I think I can win the cup this time?" repeated the veteran sportsman, pondering for a moment. "Well, I am going to do my damndest. I hope and trust we will have good luck. To bring back the cup would be one of the greatest pleasures of my life."

Col. Duncan, Sir Thomas' racing manager, said that the Shamrock V, the challenging yacht, would not be a freak boat, and expressed the opinion that the rules for the 1930 race as outlined from New York bettered the chances of the challenger.

Both are subject to many ailments arising from inflammation and to all manner of cuts and bruises. Cowgirl Outfit For Jerina

California Mail Says Opera Star Did "Not Look The Part."

The star of the "Vienna" Opera, Miss Jerina, received the other day a large parcel from California, which revealed when opened a cowgirl outfit, complete with saddle and bridle. The sender, a Mr. Schwenke, of Los Angeles, explained in an accompanying letter that he is making his gift to Miss Jerina because, when on a visit to Vienna, he saw the opera "The Girl of the Golden West" and was much pleased to find that Miss Jerina, as "young lady," had not the slightest idea what a "girl of the Golden West" really looks like.

Bicycle Boats Are Latest Have Become More Popular Than Swimming Channel

Bicycle-boating across the Channel has replaced swimming in popularity. Three athletes have already succeeded in crossing, so far this year. The latest was a woman, Miss Alice Frammer, who pedaled her way over on a nautical bicycle in 9 hrs. 19 mins. She was so worn by the effort that she fainted as she got off her seat.

The bicycles are fitted to two long pointed pontoons and the pedals are attached to paddlewheel propellers. The sea-bikes make about five miles an hour, but currents bother Channel bilers.

In the Days of Mary Queen of Scots

In previous advertisements we have traced the progress of the art of brewing from 200 B.C. to the 13th Century when Burton on Trent became famous for its waters.

When Mary Queen of Scots was imprisoned in Turbary Castle Walsingham in 1570 she furnished proof that beer was more than the drink of the commoner.

She had her secretary enquire "at what place near Turbary does beer may be provided for Her Majesty's use" to which Sir Ralph Sadler, governor of the castle, replied: "Beer may be had at Burton three miles off."

Today malt beverages.

EQUAL TERMS IN SETTLEMENT OF RESOURCES DEAL

Ottawa.—The Dominion government is now prepared to accord to Alberta and Saskatchewan, in settlement of the natural resources question, "treatment similar to that granted to Manitoba with respect to the continuance of Dominion subsidies."

It was stated by the prime minister that the Dominion government having in mind negotiations now pending with the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan, and the representations of the governments of these provinces with respect to the continuance of the payment of subsidies in accordance with the terms of existing legislation, is now prepared to accord to Alberta and Saskatchewan, in settlement of the resources question, treatment similar to that granted to Manitoba with respect to the continuance of Dominion subsidies.

The report recommends that Manitoba should be paid the sum of $58,212 in cash as the balance due for past arrears covering the period during which the resources have been alienated. It also recommends that from now on until the population of Manitoba reaches 200,000 the province shall receive annually the sum of $562,500. When the population reaches 800,000, the report proposes that this amount shall be decreased to $750,000 per annum. Finally, when the population increases to 1,200,000, the amount payable annually will rise to $1,125,000, and remain unchanged thereafter.

Subsidies must be paid from the treasury and the country generally must provide the cash. It has been demonstrated frequently that the eastern provinces of Canada consider themselves very important parties to any settlement which is made of the natural resources question. Treatment must be fair to both east and west.

The function of the commission was to ascertain what financial readjustment should be made for the purpose of placing Manitoba in a position of equality with the other provinces of Confederation in respect to the administration and control of its natural resources. The report is the commission's answer to this question.

Name Canadian Destroyers

Vessels To Be Called "Saguenay" and "Steeles"

Ottawa.—The two new Canadian destroyers are to be named "Saguenay" and "Steeles." Hon. J. L. Ralston, minister of national defence, has announced. The vessels are being built at Southampton by Thornycroft, Limited, at a combined cost of approximately $3,000,000 and are expected to be completed in two years. They will replace the "Patriot" and "Patriarch," which were declared obsolete and were sold some time ago to be scrapped.

To Find Solution Of Naval Problem

Premier MacDonald Is Very Hopeful Of Ultimate Outcome

London, England.—Premier Ramsay MacDonald made known he hoped before many days it would be possible to make definite announcements of how naval disarmament negotiations were to be conducted, where a conference would be held, and the precise objects of that conference.

He was speaking at a Labor reception held at the Friends' Meeting House, in Euston Road. At the same time he disclosed that he had had a second conversation with General Charles G. Dawes, new United States ambassador to Great Britain, and had seen Hugh Gibson, United States ambassador to Belgium, who arrived in London to assist General Dawes in finding a solution to what has been termed the outstanding land between the two English-speaking peoples.

Premier MacDonald, while very brief, was extremely hopeful. After he referred to the great political victory Labor had won and the general position of his government, remarking that there would be no miracle and no magic, but a sincere determination and courage to face public questions, he plunged immediately into his revelation.

"We have allowed no grass to grow under our feet. We have already started conversations with the United States."

"I am not a prophet, and am not going to pose as one able to prophesy. I am convinced of this, that the obstacles that have been in the way of any understanding have been created, if I may say so, by the changes on one English word, by a lack of understanding of each other. The great thing which is wanted in the world today is capacity of different peoples, different races and different nations, to put themselves in each other's shoes. That will be one of the things that we shall try to do in the conduct of these negotiations."

Crop Conditions Good

But Not Up To Last Year Says C.N. Official

Montreal.—Crop conditions throughout Western Canada, although excellent in certain districts, are not generally as promising as at this time last year, stated Dr. W. J. Black, director of colonization and agriculture of the Canadian National Railways, who has returned from an official tour of the west. Notwithstanding, however, conditions generally are more prosperous than for some years in Western cities, said Dr. Black.

There is a tremendous area under cultivation this year throughout the entire River country and land settlement has been going forward there at an enormous rate. Settlers have even gone in large numbers as far northwest as the Fort St. John district and they appear generally to be a fine lot of people.

Canada's Forest Wealth

Will Take Inventory Of Forest Resources As Preliminary To Reformation Plans

Ottawa.—Federal and provincial governments of the Dominion are co-operating for the purpose of taking an inventory of Canada's forest resources. Today, Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of the interior, opened a conference attended by these provincial ministers, as well as by several federal and provincial officials, which will endeavor to arrive at the actual forest wealth of Canada.

In his brief opening address, Mr. Stewart pointed out the importance of this step as a preliminary to reforestation plans.

Posthumous Award For Bravery
Honn.—The gold medal for bravery was conferred posthumously on Dr. Finn Malmgren, noted Swedish scientist, who died while attempting to summon aid after the Polar dirigible Italia crashed in the Arctic, a year ago. The government awarded the scientist's mother, who lives in Sweden, a pension of $500 yearly and sent her documents gathered by an official investigating commission and paying glowing tribute to Malmgren's heroism.

Hail In South Africa

Durban, Natal, South Africa.—The most destructive hail-storm in this city's history occurred here causing immense damage which cost estimated at 500,000 pounds sterling, about $2,500,000. A few minutes' action, the hail started, lay eight inches deep on the streets, some of the stones being four inches in diameter.

Damage By Storm Cannot Be Computed

Cost Of Semi-Tornado In Montreal District Will Run Into Millions

Montreal.—The full story of the electrical storm and semi-tornado which swept down from the north, spreading death and destruction in its path from the Laurentians to the eastern townships, remains to be written. The death toll stood at seven but news from the Laurentian district north of Montreal was only fragmentary owing to continued disorganization of communication lines.

Total damage caused by the storm will never be completely computed, but it is extensive and probably runs well into the millions. $1,000,000 worth of damage alone having resulted when lightning set fire to the Sacred Heart convent at Saul au Recollet, near here, and completely destroyed that widely known educational institution.

Oldest Odd Fellow Dead

Andrew Wickett, Vancouver, Was Member For Sixty-Five Years

Vancouver.—Andrew Wickett, aged 92, a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows for more than 65 years, and said to be the oldest member of that order, is dead here. Mr. Wickett was born in Ontario and became a member of Aymer Lodge No. 90, T.O.E.F., Aymer, Ont. As a young man, and to his death, he retained his connection with the lodge. He was a retired lumberman.

MAY RESUME TRADE RELATIONS WITH MOSCOW

London, England.—One of the first acts of the new Labor government has been to cable the announcement to all the Dominion governments of the British Empire that Great Britain intends to resume diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia in the near future.

Political observers believe the Labor ministry's move will receive sufficient support from Conservative and Liberal members of Parliament to assure approval of British diplomatic relations with Moscow.

It has long been known the Labor party was in favor of renewing diplomatic and trade relations with Russia, broken off by the raid on Arcos House, London, headquarters of the Russian commercial mission, made by the late Conservative government in May, 1927.

Although His Majesty's government is not technically dependent on approval of its new Russian policy by the Dominions, the co-operation of other parts of the British Empire is ardently desired in London.

Well-informed persons think resumption of relations with Russia will be proposed in the King's Speech from the Throne, July 2, which will announce the program of the government.

It is thought the government may count on support from both opposition parties, since the leaders of the Liberal party severely criticized the Baldwin government for its break with Russia. Among many young members of the Conservative party there is strong sentiment for getting on normal terms with Russia.

It will contain five hundred bedrooms and will be wholly modern in all its facilities. The photograph shows the architect's conception of the new hotel as it will appear when completed.

Rum Running Wanes

Significant Drop In The Export Of Liquor Is Reported

Windsor, Ont.—Canadian customs returns for the current month should show a significant drop in the exports of liquor from the Essex border docks, according to reports of the United States authorities.

Imports at the one-time notorious receiving depot of Ecorse have been cut to a fraction, according to customs patrols, while the occasional rum boat on the American side of the Detroit river is more or less of an oddity these nights, they say.

Considerable liquor, however, is getting through below Ecorse on the Trenton front, guarded by the greyhounds of the "dry" navy, the United States coast-guard cutters. The rum boats are shooting out from Amherstburg into the lake and there are no government boats in adequate numbers to stem the tide.

But this situation is to be remedied, according to plans announced. More than fifty boats of all descriptions are to be in service by July 1. It was reported, ranging in type from launches to the 70-foot speed boats, carrying one-pound guns and useful for long chases.

Declares Stresemann Failure

Berlin.—Dr. Gustave Stresemann, German Foreign Minister, in a vigorous reply to severe Nationalist criticism, told the Reichstag Germany would not stand for the installation of a commission in the Rhineland as the price of its evacuation.

When he debate was finished for the day the Nationalists introduced a motion of no confidence against the Foreign Minister, declaring his five years in that post had been a failure.

Stockmen Protest Against Land Sales

Grazing Leases Said To Be Unsatisfactory To Cattle Men

Swift Current.—As a result of the Saskatchewan Stock Growers' Association Convention, held in this city, the stockmen of the province are taking action in several matters of importance to the ranching industry. The school lands, grazing leases are anything but satisfactory to the cattle men, it being contended that government regulations regarding such leases have been changing so frequently that ranchers do not know where they stand in the matter from year to year, the latest action being the offering for sale of school lands used for grazing.

The Dominion Department of Agriculture is being asked to make a survey of the Dominion to ascertain the most suitable districts for winter feeding in the interest of the stock-raising industry.

Wins Hungarian Derby

Horse Sold For Seventy Dollars Captures Coveted Prize

Budapest, Hungary.—Condemned to a few more days by his former owner for $70 because he considered him "fit only for the plough," a three-year-old horse named Babalo walked off with the Hungarian National Derby and a $10,000 prize against a field of 21 of the country's thoroughbreds.

When Babalo's old master consigned him to the farm he was bought by a local tavern-keeper, who found him too tight to hitch to a cart. He turned him over to a friend, who, after a few months' training, prepared him to race again, the action culminating when he assumed the proudest place on the Hungarian turf.

GRAIN DRYING DETAILS GIVEN TO COMMISSION

Winnipeg.—The suggestion that two standards for grain grading be established—one for grain destined for the eastern seaboard and the other for westbound cargoes, did not receive the approbation of James D. Fraser, chief of the grain inspection department, when counsel for the Saskatchewan Royal Grain Commission asked his opinion of the proposal during the commission's sitting here.

"I don't see how two grading standards can be applied," declared the inspector chief for the western division. "Once the standard is set by the board it must be maintained regardless of its destination."

Technical knowledge of grain drying was given by the commission by Dr. Wm. F. Geddes, professor of agricultural chemistry at the University of Manitoba, who was a member of the associate committee of national research on grain drying. Declaring that grain can be dried from any state, Dr. Geddes pointed out that according to the conclusions reached by his committee the safest manner in which to dry grain was by a continuous discharge of grain through the dryer. Batch drying, he said, was found not suitable.

On Chief Brown's suggestion that bleached wheat could be tested, before sold, Mr. Fraser replied that the only tests which could be made would be those of milling and baking.

"And to mill and bake wheat for testing purposes would be a great obstruction to the grain movement during the 'rush season,'" he added. The tests would take about two days, he thought.

To convince eastern and overseas buyers that damp wheat, when dried in elevators, is as good value as straight graded wheat of the same grades, Mr. Fraser thought the inspection department would have to be given complete supervision over all grain drying. If the wheat is properly heated, the color of kernel would be changed, he told the commission, but not the protein value. He thought that if the inspection department marked heated grain it would be accepted by buyers. The damage to tough and damp grain is all done during the heating process, the commissioners were informed.

Asked if he favored abolition of mixing in all grades, Mr. Fraser would not reply. He thought, however, that prohibition of mixing would materially lessen the work of his department, though he doubted whether the present uniformity in grades would be upheld.

SAPIRO FAVORS ONE HUNDRED PER CENT. POOL

Saskatoon.—"Your pool needs one experiment of five years of pure co-operative marketing and I come with all sincerity to tell you that the next step is for a 100 per cent pool."

These were the manager's brought by Aaron Sapiro, co-operative marketing expert, who addressed a large audience here under the auspices of the United Farmers of Canada.

In his opening remarks Mr. Sapiro announced that his subject would be "100 Per Cent Pool Control." He told the gathering that he was now here under the auspices of the Wheat Pool, but at the request of the U.F.C.

The fact the Wheat Pool board had gone on record in opposition to the 100 per cent pool was no reason at all in his mind why the question should be considered "a dead issue," he said. Although that was what he had been repeatedly told since arrival in Saskatchewan, the speaker declared.

"And the 100 per cent pool is far from dead," he emphasized, "regardless of who wants to put it under the ground."

At the outset, he contended that a 100 per cent pool was not only proper, but absolutely essential for true co-operation. It merely meant, he explained, that when two-thirds of the farmers, or those who controlled two-thirds of the acreage wanted co-operative marketing, that all wheat grown in the province would be delivered to the pool for a period of years.

The legislation, which would be of a permissive nature, might be either provincial or Dominion. He was not concerned with the specific form of the law. The whole question was whether the farmers wanted a purely co-operative system, or wanted one that was spiced with speculative agents.

Grain dealers, Mr. Sapiro said, would naturally be opposed to the idea of a 100 per cent pool. Also those in touch to the grain dealers, but he could not understand why co-operative leaders should be opposed to the idea.

Railways Paid Large Sums

Washington.—Canadian railways took $400,000,000 in round figures out of the United States as freight charges on United States commodities shipped over Canadian lines in 1928. These figures are contained in a pamphlet on recovery of payments put out by the Department of Commerce. On the other hand, Canadians paid about $14,000,000 to United States roads for similar transport.

Re-Elected As Speaker
